1. NP-hard.

The definition of np-hard is it can be reduced to NP problem in polynomial time, including NP-complete. Therefore, B is NP-hard.

2. NP.

The definition of np-complete is every NP problem can be reduced to it in polynomial time. Therefore, A is NP.